Code of Conduct

Thank you for volunteering with Destination ImagiNation, Inc. (DII). We are excited you have given your personal time to assist with running our program, so students learn creativity, teamwork and problem solving. Our primary participants are teams that consist of young people, and we want to ensure they have the most positive experience while involved in the Destination ImagiNation programs and while showcasing their solutions. As such, we expect our volunteers to conduct themselves in a manner that positively represents our organization. Integrity must underlie all company relationships, including those with teams, customers, suppliers, communities, and among employees or volunteers.

By creating an account at www.texasdi.org, you agree to abide by this Code of Conduct when volunteering with Destination ImagiNation, Inc. (DII);

- I will embrace the spirit of creativity, teamwork and problem solving as the core principles of DII.
- I will uphold the honesty, impartiality, and reputation of DII to prevent any disparagement or defamation to the organization or individuals.
- I know the core principles on which DII does business are mutual respect, fair dealing and open communication. This is the foundation for all of our transactions and interactions.

Texas DI User Account Creation Confirmation

A validation email has been sent to your email address. In order to get full access to the site, you will need to follow the instructions in that message.

Thank you for creating a User Account at Texas DI.

An email is being sent to you with additional information on confirming your account.

Due to the high number of spammers attempting to create accounts at Texas DI you will not be able to complete registration as a Team Manager or Appraiser until you verify your account by clicking on the validation link in the email that you receive.

If you do not receive an email check your spam filter. Some school districts restrict email from txdi.org. If possible, whitelist txdi.org in your email account. You can also contact your district's IT department and see if they can set your account to allow email from txdi.org.

To activate your account, log onto your email and follow the instructions in the email. If you don't receive the email, check your spam filter. Many school districts block confirmation results.

Account Validated

You have successfully validated your e-mail address.

You have validated your Texas DI user account.

We apologize for requiring you to take this extra step but we experience a large number of spammers trying to create accounts at Texas DI (as many as 30 to 60 per day).

Thank you for validating your account at Texas DI.

If you intended to create an account as a Team Manager or an Appraiser then you failed to check the team manager box when you set up your account. Please edit your account (see the My Account link above) and check the proper box.

If John had registered as a team manager, you would see the letters 'TM' here.
If John had registered as an appraiser, you would see the letters 'Appraiser' here.

Please, note that John Doe did not identify himself as a manager or appraiser. If he is one of those then he will need to update his profile and click on the correct box there.

Landing screen for managers

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying "Register.txdi.org/TM". The browser's address bar and folder icons are visible. The website has a blue header with the title "Texas DI Registration" and navigation links for "Calendar", "Regions", "My Profile", and "Logout". Below the header, the page is titled "John Doe's Team Manager Page" and includes a "Home" link and a "TM" link. A navigation menu contains "Teams", "Tshirt orders", "Tournament", "Useful links", and "Help". The main content area is titled "Regional Teams" and contains instructions for editing and adding teams. A table lists a team with the following details:

Mem #▲	School Name	Challenge	Competition Level	PO Received	RegPaid?
750-00001	China Spring Elementary	R	RS

Below the table is an "Add Team" link. A text box at the bottom of the page provides instructions: "Yur name will display here. This screen should now appear every time you log on. If it doesn't, click on the letters 'TM'". Two orange arrows point from this text box to the "TM" link in the top right corner and the "Tournament" link in the navigation menu.
